ABOUT US

BRIDGING NORDIC ROOTS WITH MODERN SUSTAINABILITY

Sittingsuits, a harmonious blend of Scandinavian elegance and practicality, is an embodiment of the quest for balance - balance between the indoors and outdoors, comfort and style, nature and modernity. Born out of a need to elevate outdoor experiences, the brand ensures that neither the cold nor any restrictions stand in the way of moments that matter.

The original purpose of Sittingsuits was simple yet groundbreaking. While traditional outdoor wear focused on vigorous activities, Sittingsuits had a different approach. Why shouldn't one enjoy a good read on a chilly evening by the balcony? Or engage in a heartfelt conversation at an outdoor café without the shivers? It was this desire to make relaxing outdoors more enjoyable that gave birth to Sittingsuits. The brand's mission was crystal clear: craft protective, body-inclusive outerwear that universally fits everyone and amplifies every occasion.

The founders of Sittingsuits, Rebecca Johansen and Vibe Johansson, envisioned a world where comfort wasn't a luxury but a staple. They imagined Sittingsuits gracing city balconies, enriching experiences in restaurants, spas, hotels, and venues, and most importantly, molding the fabric of outdoor gatherings. The emphasis on self-expression, lifestyle balance, and sustainability is deeply embedded in their DNA.
